Other Items You Might Like

Continue to build your students' literacy skills through the area of informational texts. Each unit contains 3 different levels of informational text about a topic along with 3 different levels of research and informational writing. Great for meeting individual needs. Another use is to begin the year with level 1 or 2 writing, and move up a level of difficulty later in the year. Teacher instructions are included. Current topics include owls and insects. Coming soon: Frogs vs. Toads
